1) POCD Listening Session – Economic Development and Riverfront Revitalization

John Gustkowski, Consultant with CME explained that he was hired by the City to facilitate the update of the Planning, Conservation and Development. He explained what they were doing and explained that it is mandated by Statute to update this every ten years. It is basically a statement of goals and the direction of where you want to see your City go, such as in terms of housing, infrastructure, open space, lands to be conserved, education and sewer & water concerns among other goals.

Some key input that they received from the Charettes and surveys:
- Beautify buildings standing vacant;
- Parking;
- Adaptive re-use;
- Need for good schools;
- Additional smaller music venues;
- Market rate housing downtown;
- Additional retail restaurants;
- Expanding tax base;
- Good public transportation;
- Accessible amenities and Services.

Key relevant input – downtown & riverfront
- Connect riverfront to downtown;
- Better walking and walkability;
- Create multiple connections between Harbor Park and Main Street for pedestrians and bike with handicap access 1 block wide elevated crossing;
- Turn downtown and riverfront brownfields into public spaces;
- Rooftop dining and gardens;
- Multi-story parking arcade near Main Street;
- Improve green spaces for children on Main Street (playgrounds);
- Parking at Metro Square;
- Close Main Street to vehicles at 6:00 PM every day;
- Improve connection between Wesleyan and downtown;
- How to get more people to visit Middletown.

Key findings from POCD Community Surveys. The 3 top greatest challenges facing Middletown in the next 10 years:
