From: Westfield Residents Association

Subject: POCD Chapter 6

Since the POCD, once approved, does not have to be reviewed or updated for ten years, in order to avoid any question in the ensuing decade as to the date of the present time referenced, Line one of the second paragraph, page 25, should be amended to read: Between 1990 and 2008, the City averaged an increase....etc.

On page 26 the first paragraph mentions a study that the city did to get a better handle on the city's future population growth. The second paragraph mentions the study followed by: (Appendix II). Unless that Appendix is included in this edition of the POCD, we think that you should delete that reference. If it is included, and we have missed it, list the page it is on. Or, include where people can see a copy.

A simple addition that would make finding chapters in this POCD easier to locate would be to put their page numbers after their listings in the Table of Contents.
