Middletown Redevelopment Agency

Meeting Minutes -- 11 September 2000

The meeting began at 6:05 PM.

In attendance were: J. Blancato, J. Fortuna, S. Gionfriddo, J. Makrogianis, H. Novicki, L. Russo, R. Santangelo, S. Shapiro, J. Tine, W. Warner, M. Johnson. In the absence of Agency Chair, S. Leinwand, H. Novicki chaired the meeting.

W. Warner reported on the status of the Miller Bridge Redevelopment Plan. W. Warner reported that the funds were in place, that a relocation committee had met, and that appraisals would be done and property owners contacted.

B. Kilbourne inquired into the status of 12 Miller Street.

W. Warner responded.

Next, M. Johnson presented a progress report on the plans of the North End Action Team (NEAT). This was followed with a slide show presented by NEAT who updated the Agency on their revisions to the North End Central Business District Urban Renewal Plan.

Members of the Agency responded with questions and encouragement. Questions ranged from parking, to city-owned parcels and their availability for the project.

P. Patton of Wesleyan University announced the University's interest in expanding arts projects and programs in the North End.

There being no further business, the meeting adjourned.
